A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on December 8, 2010 has been entered.

The declaration under 37 CFR 1.132 filed December 8, 2010 is sufficient to overcome the rejection of claims 1, 5-6, 16, 20-21 based upon Brantman (US 4687782; IDS 06.02.05) and Soop et al. (1988 J Appl Physiol 64(6): 2394-2399), for the reasons noted below.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: claims 1, 5-6, 16, 20-21 are drawn to a composition for a sustained treatment of muscular fatigue, wherein said composition consists of leucine, isoleucine, valine, glutamine, and a whey protein. Applicants' remarks and the 37 CFR 1.132 declaration received December 8, 2010 are persuasive to overcome the cited 103(a) references (Brantman and Soop et al.). Applicants note that Soop et al. do not provide sufficient motivation to one of ordinary skill to omit carnitine from the composition of Brantman because omission of carnitine would render it unsatisfactory for its intended purpose (Applicants' remarks of December 8, 2010, p. 4-5). The 37 CFR 1.132 declaration, along with the references submitted in the IDS of October 25, 2010, indicate that carnitine is not maintained at an adequate level during exercise and thus, given the teachings of Brantmant et al., there would be no motivation to remove said carnitine. A search of the prior art reveals that the instant invention is novel. Further, the prior art does not suggest the invention as claimed and therefore, said invention is non-obvious.

Claims 1, 5-6, 16, 20-21 are allowed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Marsha M. Tsay whose telephone number is (571)272-2938. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F, 9:00am-5:00pm.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Manjunath N. Rao can be reached on 571-272-0939. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
